

To be filled out by the authority

Case number	Signature
-------------	-----------

Application for residence status for a family member of a British citizen

Use this form to apply for residence status if you are a family member of a British citizen who met the requirements for a right of residence in Sweden on 31 December 2020.

If you are a British citizen, who besides the family relationship has more reasons to be granted residence status, you can indicate this under the Other information section.

If you have been a resident of Sweden with a right of residence for five years, you can apply for permanent residence status. You must then use the form Application for permanent residence status for a family member of a British citizen, 281011.

Submit one form per person. If all of the information in the application is completed in full and all necessary documents are enclosed, your waiting time will be shorter. Do not forget to sign the form.

If the Swedish Migration Agency grants your application, you will receive a certificate of your right to live in Sweden.

You can find more information at www.migrationsverket.se.

I am applying for residence status

(US)

1. Personal details

Surname (family name)
First name(s)	Date of birth/Personal ID No. (YYYYMMDD-NNNN)
Citizenship	Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female

2. Address

c/o	Street address
Postcode or equivalent	Place
Email address	Telephone number

3. Relation to your family member in Sweden

Give the name of your relative in Sweden and state what relation you are to him or her.

Surname	First name
Citizenship	Date of birth/Personal ID No. (YYYYMMDD-NNNN)
Relation <input type="checkbox"/> Husband, wife or cohabiting partner (UB) <input type="checkbox"/> Child under the age of 21 (UB) <input type="checkbox"/> Financially dependent parent (U7) <input type="checkbox"/> Financially dependent child over the age of 21 (U8) <input type="checkbox"/> Other: indicate relation (U6)

4. Husband, wife or cohabiting partner – personal details

(All co-applicants must submit their own application)

Surname	First name
Citizenship	Date of birth/Personal ID No. (YYYYMMDD-NNNN)
Marital status <input type="checkbox"/> Married <input type="checkbox"/> Cohabiting, since (YYYY-MM-DD)	Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female

5. Child(ren) under the age of 21 – personal details

(All co-applicants must submit their own application)

Provide information for all children; if you have more than three children, enter the children's personal information in the Other information section.

Surname, First name	Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female
Citizenship	Date of birth/Personal ID No. (YYYYMMDD-NNNN)
Surname, First name	Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female
Citizenship	Date of birth/Personal ID No. (YYYYMMDD-NNNN)
Surname, First name	Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female
Citizenship	Date of birth/Personal ID No. (YYYYMMDD-NNNN)

6. Parents – personal details (To be completed only if you are under 21 years of age)

6.1 Father

Surname	First name
Citizenship	Date of birth/Personal ID No. (YYYYMMDD-NNNN)

6.2 Mother

Surname	First name
Citizenship	Date of birth/Personal ID No. (YYYYMMDD-NNNN)

7. If the application concerns a child under the age of 18

(To be completed only if the child applying is under 18)

All children with the ability and desire to do so have the right to speak and be heard regarding their case at the Swedish Migration Agency. Children may express their views themselves, or allow a representative (such as a parent, legal guardian or guardian) to do it for them. The child and the child's guardian (parent) must decide whether the child wants to be heard and if so, in what way. It is important that it is the child's views that come forward and not the adult's.

Does the child have additional reasons to be granted a residence status? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
If yes, please state the reasons the child has to be granted a residence status beyond family ties to you as parent.

Does the child want to express their views on their case? Yes No

If yes and the child wants to express their views in writing, please write here or enclose a separate sheet of paper.

If the child wants to express their views verbally, please write to the Swedish Migration Agency at migrationsverket@migrationsverket.se. You will find contact information at www.migrationsverket.se.

Does the child need special support? (for example, for physical or mental reasons) Yes No

If yes, please describe in what way the child needs special support.

8. I am applying for residence status because I am...

Tick the box that applies to you.

- Husband, wife, cohabiting partner, child under the age of 21 to a British citizen or child under the age of 21 of a British citizen's husband, wife or cohabiting partner (UB)

Enclose copies of the following documents

If you are a husband or wife

- the pages of your passport showing your personal information and the period of validity of your passport, or national identity card if you are a British or EU/EEA citizen
- documents showing the family relationship, for example marriage certificate.

If you are a cohabiting partner

- the pages of your passport showing your personal information and the period of validity of your passport, or national identity card if you are a British or EU/EEA citizen
- documents which confirm that you have cohabitated, either in Sweden or abroad, for example:
 - extracts from the civil registry or other documentation showing that you both have been registered at the same address
 - documents which show shared utility accounts or insurance policies
 - bills issued to you jointly or bills that were issued individually but were sent to your shared address; for example telephone bills.

If you are husband, wife or cohabiting partner

Use the Other information section to describe where and for how long you have lived together.

If the application concerns a child

- the pages of the child's passport showing his or her personal information and the period of validity of their passport, or national identity card if the child is a British or EU/EEA citizen
- birth certificate or other document stating the parents' names.

If the application concerns a child under the age of 18 years

Optionally a separate sheet of paper with the child's views.

Parent who is financially dependent on a British citizen or their husband, wife or cohabiting partner (U7)

Enclose copies of the following documents

- the pages of your passport showing your personal information and the period of validity of your passport or British national identity card if you are a British or EU/EEA citizen
- document which demonstrates that you are related to the EU citizen or their husband, wife or cohabiting partner; for example. a birth certificate
- documents which demonstrate the way in which you are dependent on your family member for essential needs.

Use the Other information section to describe the way in which you are dependent of the person residing in Sweden.

Child over the age of 21 who is financially dependent on a British citizen or their husband, wife or cohabiting partner (U8)

Enclose copies of the following documents

- the pages of your passport showing your personal information and the period of validity of your passport or British national identity card if you are a British or EU/EEA citizen
- document which demonstrates that you are related to the EU citizen or their husband, wife or cohabiting partner; for example. a birth certificate
- documents which demonstrate the way in which you are dependent on your family member for essential needs.

Use the Other information section to describe the way in which you are dependent of the person residing in Sweden.

Parent/legal guardian of a child studying in Sweden (U6)

Enclose copies of the following documents

- the pages of your passport showing your personal information and the period of validity of your passport or British national identity card if you are a British or EU/EEA citizen
- document which demonstrates that you are the parent/legal guardian of the child who is studying in Sweden; for example. a birth certificate
- document which demonstrate that the child is studying in Sweden.

9. Your family member's right of residence

You must show that your family member is a British citizen who met the requirements for residence status in Sweden on 31 December 2020. The Swedish Migration Agency needs different documents depending on the grounds on which your relative had a right of residence. Enter below the grounds on which your family member had a right of residence in Sweden.

If you and your family member apply at the same time, it is enough if he or she sends the documents in his or her application.

My family member is employed in Sweden

Enclose copies of the following documents

- your family member's passport or British national identity card
- certificate of employment. If the certificate of employment is more than three months old, a payslip for the most recent month also needs to be enclosed. The certificate of employment must include the following information:
 - employer's name and contact information (address and telephone number)
 - employer's corporate registration number
 - wages
 - duration of the employment (permanent or temporary employment)
 - scope of the work, number of hours per week
 - when the employment began.

If your family member has part-time employment or temporary employment, you need to enclose payslips for the last three months showing the number of hours worked.

My family member is self-employed in Sweden

Enclose copies of the following documents

- your family member's passport or British national identity card
- documents that show that your family member is self-employed, for example
 - F-tax certificate and certificate of registration for the company
 - latest VAT return submitted to the Swedish Tax Agency or an extract from the tax account
 - evidence that you are running a business, e.g. customer invoices, receipts for purchased materials, rental agreement for commercial premises, etc.

If your family member is in the process of setting up his or her own business in Sweden but do not yet have a business, you need to enclose copies of:

- documents which state the plans that are in place for the company and the preparations that have been made
- service contracts, customer contact information or a rental agreement for commercial premises
- transfer agreement and the most recent annual report.

My family member is a person with sufficient funds (also includes pensioners)

Your family member's funds must be sufficient to support the entire family.

Always enclose copies of the following documents

- your family member's passport or British national identity card
- if you are not registered in Sweden in the Population Register, you need to enclose documentation confirming that you are covered by the social insurance system of another EU country:
 - the document must be issued by the authorities of the respective country
 - if you are unable to obtain such documentation, you need to take out a comprehensive health insurance policy which covers you during your time in Sweden, and enclose a copy of the policy. The copy must clearly state what is covered by the policy.
- information on your housing costs in Sweden:
 - rental agreement showing rental costs or
 - document confirming the purchase of a condominium or property. If you own your property, indicate the monthly costs associated with your residence.

If your family member's means of support consists of a salary or other form of compensation from abroad, you need to enclose

- a pension statement if he or she is a pensioner
- a copy of a valid employment contract and payslip from the employer for the last three months if he or she is employed
- receipts for costs incurred commuting to a foreign country. Enclose a copy of monthly/weekly commuter card or similar
- documentation of any allowances or other forms of income from abroad.

If you intend to support yourself using your family member's assets, you need to enclose

- bank statements showing your available funds
- information on other sources of disposable income.

Please also use the Other information section to indicate how long you intend to reside in Sweden.

If another person is supporting you in Sweden, you need to enclose

- a copy of the identity card for the person who supports you
- a letter in which the person who supports you certifies that he or she will continue to support you and states their relation to you (if you are not related, then close friends or similar)
- details of the person's income, assets and living circumstances. This also needs to state whether the person has any family members or other persons who are dependent on him or her for their support.

My family member is a student in Sweden (Note that SFI studies are not covered)

Enclose copies of the following documents

- your family member's passport or British national identity card
- evidence of acceptance to an education programme at the upper secondary level or higher
- European health insurance cards (EHIC) for you and your family member.

If you are ineligible for such a card, you need to take out a comprehensive health insurance policy which covers you during your time in Sweden, and enclose a copy of the policy. The copy must clearly state what is covered by the policy.

I confirm that my maintenance is secured for myself and my family during my course of studies in Sweden.

Signature of the family member

10. Other information

11. Power of attorney

If you would like a third party (a legal representative) to be able to represent you in your case for residence status, you must submit the form Power of attorney, 107011, to the Swedish Migration Agency.

12. Signature

I hereby solemnly declare that the information that I have provided is true and that I have not knowingly left out anything that may be of significance in the examination of the case and that I have read the information about the processing of personal data in the appendix.

I am aware that it is a criminal offence to submit incorrect information or to knowingly omit information that may be of significant importance in the assessment of my case.

Place and date

Signature (for minors, signature of parent/legal guardian)

Appendix – Information on the processing of personal data

Note that this appendix shall not be sent in to the Swedish Migration Agency.

General information

This information is provided to meet the information requirements pursuant to the EU General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679), hereinafter referred to as the “GDPR”.

Processing of personal data

The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data that you provide in the application and during the Swedish Migration Agency’s handling of the application. The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data pursuant to the GDPR and the Swedish Migration Agency’s register statute, i.e., the Act on the Personal Data of Aliens (2016:27). The Act on the Personal Data of Aliens includes regulations that mean that personal data may be processed without you having to provide your consent.

Swedish Migration Agency’s responsibility

Personal data is collected by the Swedish Migration Agency, which is the personal data controller and is responsible for the processing of personal data in the application and in the handling. There may be exceptions in case it is another authority or organisation that processes the personal data that you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency.

Processing of personal data at another authority or organisation

The personal data you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency may also be processed at another authority (e.g., the Swedish Tax Agency or a municipality) or organisation, provided that they have the right to process the personal data. That authority or organisation may in these cases be responsible for the processing of personal data.

Purpose of personal data processing

The Swedish Migration Agency processes your personal data for multiple purposes. The Swedish Migration Agency saves personal data in order for the application process to be carried out, i.e., processing a case concerning, e.g., a residence or work permit. This may also refer to automatic processing, including automatic decisions. The Swedish Migration Agency also processes your personal data to identify you, produce statistics, conduct registration, follow-up, plan, retrace decisions and release information to other authorities. Your personal data is also used in registers of applicants and in archiving at the Swedish Migration Agency.

Checks

The Swedish Migration Agency will use the personal data for checks in registers, which are necessary to make a decision in the matter. This may involve, for example, checking if you are registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS) and if you appear in the Swedish register of suspects and criminal records (MR/BR).

What data

The data the Swedish Migration Agency intends to collect and process include name, personal identity number, address, contact information and other information that is needed to process a case, for example. Depending on what the application concerns, photographs and fingerprints may also be processed.

Transfer of personal data

After a review, your personal data may be released to those who need access to the information as a result of a legal obligation, a task of public interest, such as statistical information, or a task in connection with the exercise of public authority, where a processing of the information is necessary. The Swedish Migration Agency may forward personal information submitted if the Swedish Migration Agency is the wrong body for the information and it should be forwarded to the correct recipient. Transfer of personal data takes place in accordance with personal data or secrecy legislation.

Rights

You have the right to obtain information from the Swedish Migration Agency on what data there is on you and you can request correction, transfer, deletion or restriction of your personal data.

The Agency's address is:
Swedish Migration Agency
601 70 Norrköping

Website address: www.migrationsverket.se

Phone +46-(0)77-123 52 35

Registration number 202100-2163

If you request that your personal data be deleted, it is important to know that there are requirements that personal data shall be preserved according to national archive rules.

You can contact the Swedish Migration Agency's data protection officer at the address dataskyddsbud@migrationsverket.se if you have questions about the personal data processing. You also have the right to file a complaint with the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (www.imy.se) if you believe that the Swedish Migration Agency is processing your personal data in an incorrect manner.