Application for a residence permit for family members of students and doctoral students

Use this form if you want to apply for a permit to reside in Sweden during the period that your spouse, cohabitant or registered partner will be studying or conducting doctoral studies in Sweden. Also use this form if you want to apply for an extension of your residence permit.

Help us shorten the waiting times by filling in the form on the computer or applying via the e-service. Clear and correct information reduces the risk of us having to ask you for additional information.

It makes things easier for both you and the Swedish Migration Agency. You will find further information, as well as this form, at www.migrationsverket.se. (DB, DBX, DFB, DFBX, DSUB, DSUBX)

10. If the application concerns a child under the age of 18

Complete only if the child applying is under 18.

All children with the ability and desire to do so have the right to speak and be heard regarding their case at the Swedish Migration Agency. Children may express their views themselves, or allow a representative (such as a parent, legal guardian or guardian) to do it for them. The child and the child's parent (guardian) must decide whether the child wants to be heard and if so, in what way. It is important that it is the child's views that come forward and not the adult's. If the child's parents are interviewed orally, the child will also be interviewed orally.

Does the child have additional reasons to be granted a residence permit? If yes, please state the reasons beyond family ties to you as parent.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No
---	------------------------------	-----------------------------

Does the child want to express their views on their case?

Yes

No

If yes and the child wants to express their views in writing, please write here or enclose a separate sheet of paper.

If the child wants to express his or her views verbally, please write to the Swedish Migration Agency at migrationsverket@migrationsverket.se. You will find contact information at www.migrationsverket.se.

Does the child need special support?

Yes

No

If yes, please describe in what way the child needs special support, e.g. for physical or mental reasons.

11. Means of support

How will you support yourself financially when you are in Sweden?

12. Future plans

What future plans do you and your family have?

13. Contact with home country

How will you and your family maintain contact with your home country during your stay in Sweden?
If you are applying for an extension of your permit, you are to state the contact you and your family have had with your home country during your stay in Sweden. Also state whether you have made any visits to your home country and, if so, when.

14. Other information you would like to submit regarding your application

15. The decision should be sent to

Contact the embassy or consulate-general before visiting to find out if they deal with migration issues and, if not, which embassy or consulate-general does.

Note that the Swedish Migration Agency cannot send a decision by email.

State the Swedish embassy, consulate-general or address in Sweden you would like us to send your decision to

16. Documents that you should enclose with your application

All submitted documents should be in Swedish or English. If the documents are translated, the translation should be certified. You must also include a copy of the document in its original language.

16.1 If the application is for a family member 18 years of age or older, please attach

- copies of the pages in your passport that show your personal information, photograph, signature, passport number, issuing country, the passport's period of validity and any permits to live in countries other than your country of origin. If your passport is about to expire, we recommend that you renew it, as you cannot obtain a permit for longer than the validity of your passport
- documents showing that your financial maintenance has been arranged, for example, bank statements
- documents showing your relationship If you are married: marriage certificate, marriage record, or similar document. If you are cohabitants: documents showing that you have lived together, such as population registration certificates, a joint rental contract, or proof of the joint purchase of a home.

- a letter from the person in Sweden, if you are not applying for the permit at the same time. In the letter, the person in Sweden must confirm that you will live together in Sweden.

16.2 If the application concerns a child under the age of 18, you must enclose

- copies of the pages in the child's passport that show their personal information, photograph, signature (if applicable), passport number, passport-issuing country, the passport's period of validity and any permits the child has to live in countries other than their country of origin. If the child's passport is about to expire, we recommend that you renew it, as the child cannot obtain a permit for longer than the validity of their passport
- birth record or birth certificate stating the names of the child's parents
- documents proving that the child's financial maintenance is arranged, for example, bank statements
- if a child has two parents/legal guardians, you must enclose a statement of consent from the other parent/legal guardian to the application. Please use the form Consent for a child to settle in Sweden (217011). If you share joint custody, a copy of the other parent or legal guardian's passport or other identity document must also be enclosed
- if you have sole custody of your child, you must attach a court decision to this effect. If the other parent is deceased, you must submit a death certificate.
- adoption papers if the child is adopted
- optionally a separate sheet of paper with the child's views.

Appendix – Information on the processing of personal data

Note that this appendix shall not be sent in to the Swedish Migration Agency.

General information

This information is provided to meet the information requirements pursuant to the EU General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679), hereinafter referred to as the “GDPR”.

Processing of personal data

The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data that you provide in the application and during the Swedish Migration Agency’s handling of the application. The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data pursuant to the GDPR and the Swedish Migration Agency’s register statute, i.e., the Act on the Personal Data of Aliens (2016:27). The Act on the Personal Data of Aliens includes regulations that mean that personal data may be processed without you having to provide your consent.

Swedish Migration Agency’s responsibility

Personal data is collected by the Swedish Migration Agency, which is the personal data controller and is responsible for the processing of personal data in the application and in the handling. There may be exceptions in case it is another authority or organisation that processes the personal data that you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency.

Processing of personal data at another authority or organisation

The personal data you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency may also be processed at another authority (e.g., the Swedish Tax Agency or a municipality) or organisation, provided that they have the right to process the personal data. That authority or organisation may in these cases be responsible for the processing of personal data.

Purpose of personal data processing

The Swedish Migration Agency processes your personal data for multiple purposes. The Swedish Migration Agency saves personal data in order for the application process to be carried out, i.e., processing a case concerning, e.g., a residence or work permit. This may also refer to automatic processing, including automatic decisions. The Swedish Migration Agency also processes your personal data to identify you, produce statistics, conduct registration, follow-up, plan, retrace decisions and release information to other authorities. Your personal data is also used in registers of applicants and in archiving at the Swedish Migration Agency.

Checks

The Swedish Migration Agency will use the personal data for checks in registers, which are necessary to make a decision in the matter. This may involve, for example, checking if you are registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS) and if you appear in the Swedish register of suspects and criminal records (MR/BR).

What data

The data the Swedish Migration Agency intends to collect and process include name, personal identity number, address, contact information and other information that is needed to process a case, for example. Depending on what the application concerns, photographs and fingerprints may also be processed.

Transfer of personal data

After a review, your personal data may be released to those who need access to the information as a result of a legal obligation, a task of public interest, such as statistical information, or a task in connection with the exercise of public authority, where a processing of the information is necessary. The Swedish Migration Agency may forward personal information submitted if the Swedish Migration Agency is the wrong body for the information and it should be forwarded to the correct recipient. Transfer of personal data takes place in accordance with personal data or secrecy legislation.

Rights

You have the right to obtain information from the Swedish Migration Agency on what data there is on you and you can request correction, transfer, deletion or restriction of your personal data.

The Agency's address is:
Swedish Migration Agency
601 70 Norrköping

Website address: www.migrationsverket.se

Phone +46-(0)77-123 52 35

Registration number 202100-2163

If you request that your personal data be deleted, it is important to know that there are requirements that personal data shall be preserved according to national archive rules. You can contact the Swedish Migration Agency's data protection officer at the address dataskyddsbud@migrationsverket.se if you have questions about the personal data processing.

You also have the right to file a complaint with the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (www.imy.se) if you believe that the Swedish Migration Agency is processing your personal data in an incorrect manner.
