Application for a permit for family members of workers, researchers, athletes, guest artists and self-employed persons

Use this form if you want to live in Sweden together with your family member who is applying for or has applied for a permit to work in Sweden. For this purpose, a family member is a spouse, cohabitant, registered partner and children.

The main rule is that you should apply for and have been granted a permit before entering Sweden. It is possible to apply at www.migrationsverket.se or you can fill out this form and submit your application to a Swedish embassy or consulate-general. If you are in Sweden, send the form to The Swedish Migration Agency, Box 3100, 903 03 Umeå.

We will contact you if you have to pay an application fee. If you have a representative, we will contact the representative. If you submit your application at an embassy or consulate general, you will receive information on how to pay there. If you choose to apply via the e-service, you will pay a fee, if applicable, when you submit the application. Read more about our application fees and payment methods at www.migrationsverket.se.

Help us shorten the waiting times by filling in the form on the computer or by applying via the e-service. Clear and correct information reduces the risk of us having to ask you for additional information. It makes it easier for both you and the Swedish Migration Agency. You can find more information at www.migrationsverket.se.

To show this they have to fill in the form "Questionnaire on maintenance and housing", 102511, and enclose it with your application.

The first time guest artists have family members applying for a permit to live with them, they must enclose a certificate showing that the family members also have their maintenance and accommodation secured from the sanctuary.

The first time self-employed persons have family members applying to join them, they have to enclose a bank statement or other document that shows that the maintenance requirement is also met for the family members.

I am applying for an extension

I am applying for an extension of my residence permit.

I have had a residence permit in Sweden for three years and am applying for a permanent residence permit.

If your family member receives a permanent residence permit and you have had a residence permit for three years, you can also state that you want to apply for a permanent residence permit if you can support yourself. Exceptions from this requirement can be made if you are a pensioner or have special grounds. The maintenance requirement also does not apply to children. A permanent residence permit can only be granted in connection with the examination of an application for an extended residence permit.

The child and the child's parent (guardian) must decide whether the child wants to be heard and if so, in what way. It is important that it is the child's views that come forward and not the adult's. ## 10. Other information you would like to submit regarding your application

11. If you have a residence permit linked to the Temporary Protection Directive

Answer this question if you have a valid residence permit in Sweden with temporary protection, or following temporary protection, under the EU Temporary Protection Directive. If you request that we revoke your current residence permit (answer “yes”), you will receive a residence permit as a family member to a worker, researcher, athlete, guest artist or self-employed person as soon as we grant it. If you do not request this (answer “no”), you will only be able to receive a new residence permit once your current permit expires. In that case, you may need to apply for the permit again.

If you do not meet the requirements for the permit you are applying for, we will reject your application and you will keep your current residence permit.

If the application concerns a child under the age of 18, all parents/legal guardians must request that the child’s current permit be revoked. A written request from all parents/legal guardians must therefore be submitted. If a representative is acting on behalf of the family, all parents/legal guardians must provide the representative with a power of attorney which covers the request of revocation.

Do you request that the Swedish Migration Agency revoke your current residence permit if we grant you a new permit?

Yes

No

12. The decision should be sent to

Note that the Swedish Migration Agency cannot send a decision by email.

State the Swedish embassy, consulate-general or the address in Sweden you would like us to send your decision to

13. Enclose the following documents with your application

- Copies of the pages in your passport which show your personal information, photograph, signature, passport number, passport issuing country, the passport's period of validity, bar code on the identification page and whether you have permission to live in countries other than your country of origin. It is important that the passport is signed.
- Marriage certificate or document showing that you permanently live together.
- Birth certificate(s) (for co-applicant children).
- Consent from parent or legal guardian for the child to move to Sweden (where the other parent or guardian is not coming to Sweden). This consent must state the period of time that the child is permitted to live in Sweden. In order to prove that the correct person has signed the consent you may, for example, submit a copy of her or his passport or other ID document.

- If you apply the first time as a family member of a worker, athlete or ICT permit holder, they have to fill in the blank “Questionnaire on maintenance and housing”, 102511, and enclose it with your application.
- If you apply for the first time as a family member of a guest artist, you must enclose a certificate from the sanctuary that they are responsible for your maintenance and accommodation.
- If you apply for an extended permit as a family member of a guest artist, you must enclose any certificates of your employment and income.
- If you apply as a family member of a self employed person they have to enclose a bank statement or other document that shows that the maintenance requirement is also met for the family members.
- If the application concerns a child under the age of 18 years, you may enclose a separate sheet of paper with the child's views.

13.1 If you are applying for a permanent residence permit

When you apply for a permanent residence permit in connection with the extension of your residence permit, you must also send in documents that show that you can support yourself or are exempt from the maintenance requirement (this does not apply to children under the age of 18).

- If you are employed, you must enclose a certificate of employment and your three most recent salary specifications.
- If you are a self-employed person, you must enclose the registration certificate for your company, the corporate tax certificate, the final tax notice for the previous income year, a copy of income tax return 1 together with a copy of the NE or N3A appendix, INK4 HB (if you have a trading company) for the previous income year and the balance sheet and income statement for the current financial year.
- If you have a limited liability company, you must enclose income tax return 1 for the previous year, salary specifications for the past three months and the company’s most recent annual report and the income statement and balance sheet for the current financial year.
- If you are a pensioner, you must enclose documents that show that you have a right to an income-based retirement pension, guarantee pension or elderly income support. This can be shown, for example, through a copy of a decision from the Swedish Pensions Agency.
- If you are exempt from the requirement of supporting yourself on other special grounds, you must enclose documents that show that you cannot meet the maintenance requirement on the grounds of a lasting functional impairment, illness or other limitations, such as a decision on the right to sickness allowance or activity compensation from the Swedish Social Insurance Agency, an investigation from the Swedish Public Employment Service or a doctor’s certificate.
