Questionnaire on maintenance and housing

For family members of employees and athletes

You have family members who have applied for a residence permit in Sweden to live with you in Sweden.

We ask you to answer the questions below within two weeks and send the questionnaire to the Swedish Migration Agency. It is important that you answer the questions as carefully and in as much detail as possible.

If we do not receive your reply in time or if it is incomplete, we may decide on your family's application based on the information we have. This may mean that we refuse the application.

More information about the maintenance requirement is available on the website www.migrationsverket.se. Please complete the questionnaire on a computer, as this will make it easier for us to process your application.

7.1 You must always include

- a copy of your passport or identity card showing your personal details
- documents showing how you support your household. See below for more information
- documents showing your accommodation arrangements. See below for more information.

When applying for an extension of your residence permit, you must also include documents showing how other members of your household contribute to supporting the household.

8. Documents you can include

In the questionnaire, you have answered questions about your household's income and accommodation. Below are examples of documents you can include to show that you meet the maintenance requirement. You can also send other documents that support the information you have provided about how you support yourself and your accommodation arrangements. When applying for an extension of your residence permit, you must submit documents showing the income of everyone you have stated contributes to supporting the household.

8.1 Documents you can submit to show income

8.1.1 For employees

You can attach

- a copy of your employment contract if you have a new job covered by your work permit. If you are working in the job for which you were granted a work permit, you only need to submit your employment contract if it has changed since you were granted the permit
- a copy of the employment contract for the other members of the household who contribute to supporting the household. The contract must state the employee's name, type of employment (for example, permanent employment, fixed-term employment or temporary replacement), working hours as a percentage of full-time hours, salary and the employer's name. The contract must be signed by an authorised representative of the employer

- a payslip for the most recent month. The payslip must show the employee's net salary, any additional payments and salary deductions, as well as the name of the employee and the employer. If you are employed on an hourly basis or on an on-demand basis, you must submit the three most recent payslips
- income information from the Swedish Tax Agency (www.skatteverket.se). The information must show income for the current year and the previous year. The document is called “Sammanställning inkomstuppgifter” (Summary of Income Information).

8.1.2 For people who are self-employed or partners in a trading or limited partnership

You can attach

- a copy of the final tax notice for the previous tax year
- a copy of the income tax return, together with a copy of the NE or N3A form, for the previous tax year
- a copy of the decision on preliminary tax for the current year from the Swedish Tax Agency, or account statements from the tax account for at least three months clearly showing the preliminary tax paid
- other documents showing that you receive regular income from business activities abroad during your permit period.

8.1.3 For people who have other sources of income or receive benefits

You can include an explanation of the type of income or benefits you have, together with documents supporting the information. For example, you can include a certificate from the Swedish Social Insurance Agency (Försäkringskassan) stating the type of benefit and the amount you receive.

8.2 Documents you can submit to show your accommodation arrangements

8.2.1 If you have bought accommodation

You can include the purchase agreement or another transfer document. The document must show that you own the accommodation.

8.2.2 If you rent accommodation

You can include your rental agreement. The rental agreement must state the rent, the number of rooms, the names of the tenant and landlord, and the rental period. If you sublet accommodation, you must also be able to show that the subletting has been approved by the landlord, housing association or Rent Tribunal.
