Application for proof of residence status for a family member of a British citizen

Use this form to apply for proof of residence status if you are a family member of a British citizen who met the requirements for a right of residence in Sweden on 31 December 2020. If the Swedish Migration Agency grants your application, you will receive a certificate of your right to live in Sweden.

The general application period for residence status ended on 31 December 2021. Certain groups of family members still have the opportunity to apply for residence status. Such an application must be submitted within three months of the date of arrival to Sweden, or birth, if the application concerns a newborn child. If you do not belong to one of these groups, you are required to provide an explanation as to why your application is submitted late.

There is no cost to apply for residence status. Submit one form per person. Do not forget to sign the form.

You who only want to extend the validity period of the residence status card should not submit a new application. You only need to make an appointment with the Swedish Migration Agency to leave fingerprints and be photographed again.

If you have been a resident of Sweden with a right of residence for five years, you can apply for permanent residence status. You must then use the form Application for a permanent residence status for a family member of a British citizen (281011).

Help us shorten the waiting times by filling in the form on the computer or applying via the e-service. Clear and correct information reduces the risk of us having to ask you for additional information. It makes it easier for both you and the Swedish Migration Agency. You can find more information at www.migrationsverket.se.

The child and the child's parent (guardian) must decide whether the child wants to be heard and if so, in what way. 5. Reasons for submitting the application late

The general application period for residence status ended on 31 December 2021. You, who did not apply within three months from the date of arrival to Sweden, or the birth if the application concerns a newborn child, need to explain in writing why you were prevented from applying on time and attach documents that support your reasons. In accordance with the Withdrawal Agreement, the Swedish Migration Agency then assesses whether your explanation about why you are submitting your application too late is reasonable.

6. Documents you should attach to support your application

Always attach copies of

- the pages in your passport which show personal information, the period of validity, issuing country and signature (if you are 18 years or older). If you are a UK or EU/EEA citizen, you can submit a copy of your national ID card instead of your passport
- your family member's passport or UK national identity card

You will also need to show that you are a family member of a British citizen who meets the requirements for residence status in Sweden. The documents you need to submit will depend on your relationship.

6.1 If you apply as a spouse

Submit copies of documents showing the family relationship, such as a marriage certificate.

6.2 If you apply as a cohabitant

Submit copies of documents showing that you have lived together, either in Sweden or abroad, for example

- extracts from personal registers or other certificates showing that you have been registered at the same address
- documents showing that you have had joint accounts or insurance policies
- bills that have been issued to you jointly, or bills that have been issued to you separately but which show that they have been sent to your shared address (for example telephone bills).

6.3 If you apply as a child under the age of 21

Submit copies of documents showing your relationship, for example

- birth certificate or other document stating the names of your parents
- adoption papers, if you are adopted
- a separate paper in which you state your views on the matter, if you are under the age of 18.

6.4 If you apply as a child over the age of 21 or a parent

Use the Other information section to describe how you are financially dependent on your family member who resides in Sweden. Attach

- documents (such as birth certificates) showing that you are related to the British citizen or their spouse/cohabitant
- documents showing how you depend on your family member to meet your basic needs.

6.5 If you apply as a parent/legal guardian of a child studying in Sweden

- you are the parent/legal guardian of the child who is studying in Sweden (such as birth certificates)
- your child is studying in Sweden.

You must show that your family member is a British citizen who met the requirements for residence status in Sweden on 31 December 2020 and continues to do so today (this does not apply if your family member has proof of permanent residence status). The documents you need to submit will depend on your family member's employment or livelihood. If your family member had a different employment in December 2020 than today, you will need to submit separate documents showing each employment.

If you and your family member are applying at the same time, it is sufficient for one of you to submit the documents with your application.

If you and your family member is not registered in the Swedish Population Register, you must also submit a copy of your British health insurance card (GHIC card). If you have a European health insurance card, you can continue to use it until the card expires. If you do not have a British or European card, you need to attach a copy of your insurance certificate showing that you have had comprehensive health insurance during your entire stay in Sweden. It should be clear what the insurance covers.

7.4 If your family member has been or is a person with sufficient funds or if they are retired

Your family member's funds must be sufficient to support the entire family.

Submit information about your accommodation and what housing costs you have in Sweden, for example
