Application for a certificate of permanent right of residence

Use this form to apply for a certificate of permanent right of residence if you are an EU/EEA citizen. You must have lived in Sweden continuously for at least five years with right of residence in order to be eligible for permanent right of residence. The same terms apply for your children. If the Swedish Migration Agency grants your application, you will be issued permanent residence certificate that confirms your permanent right of residence.

There is no cost to apply for a certificate of permanent right of residence. Submit one form per person.

Help us shorten the waiting times by filling in the form on the computer or applying via the e-service. Clear and correct information reduces the risk of us having to ask you for additional information. It makes it easier for both you and the Swedish Migration Agency. You can find more information at www.migrationsverket.se.

5. If the application concerns a child under the age of 18

Complete only if the child applying is under 18.

All children with the ability and desire to do so have the right to speak and be heard regarding their case at the Swedish Migration Agency. Children may express their views themselves, or allow a representative (such as a parent, legal guardian or guardian) to do it for them. The child and the child's parent (guardian) must decide whether the child wants to be heard and if so, in what way. It is important that it is the child's views that come forward and not the adult's. If the child's parents are interviewed verbally, the child will also be interviewed verbally.

Does the child have additional reasons to be granted permanent right of residence? If yes, please state the reasons.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No

6. Documents that you should submit with your application

Attach copies of the pages in your passport or ID card which show personal information, the period of validity, issuing country and signature.

If the application concerns a child under the age of 18 years, you can attach a separate sheet of paper with the child's views.

You must also submit documents showing that you have met the requirements for right of residence in Sweden for five consecutive years. The documents you must include in your application depend on the occupation or livelihood you have had during these five years. If you have had different grounds for residence during the five-year period, you need to submit documents for all your grounds.

6.1 If you have been or are an employee or unemployed

Attach copies of

- income information from the Swedish Tax Agency for the past five years
- employer certificates from all employers for the past five years
- employment contracts for the jobs you have had in the past five years
- the most recent payslip.

If you have been unemployed for any period in the past five years, you must also attach

- an employer certificate from the employer you had before you became unemployed. The certificate must state how long the employment lasted and why it was terminated
- documents showing the dates for which you been registered as a jobseeker with the Swedish Public Employment Service.

6.2 If you have been or are self-employed

Submit bank statements from the company's tax account with the Swedish Tax Agency for the last five years.

6.3 If you have been or are a student

Submit transcripts of your studies for the periods during which have studied with right of residence as a student.

6.4 If you are retired or have sufficient funds to support yourself financially in Sweden

Use the Other information section to describe the manner in which you have supported yourself during your time in Sweden. Attach copies of documents that support your description, such as copies of

- pension payments
- bank statements
- tax data for salary/wages from abroad
- other documents showing how you have supported yourself.

Submit information about your accommodation and what housing costs you have in Sweden. It can be a rental contract stating the rental cost or a proof of purchase of a tenant-owner's flat or property. If you own your home, you need to report the monthly costs associated with the property.

If another person has been responsible for your financial maintenance in Sweden, you need to submit

- a copy of the ID card of the person who is supporting you financially
- a letter in which the person who is supporting you certifies that they will be responsible for your financial maintenance, and which also states your relationship
- documents proving that they have supported you financially, such as bank account statements.

If your financial maintenance has consisted of salary/wages or other compensation from abroad, you must also submit

- employment contracts for the jobs you have had abroad

- documents showing that you have commuted to and from abroad (the documents must state the cost of the commute)
- transcripts or grades for the periods during which you have studied at least at upper secondary school level abroad
- certificates regarding any allowances, grants, or other income from abroad.

6.5 If you apply as a family member

Submit a copy of your family member's passport or national ID card. It is important that the nationality is stated on the identity document.

Attach documents showing that you are family members

- a copy of your marriage certificate, marriage record or equivalent document, if you are married
- documents showing that you have lived together, if you are cohabiting partners
- copies of birth records or birth certificates for children which state the names of the parents, for accompanying children
- documents showing how you depend on your family member and how you are related (applies to children over 21 years of age and other close relatives).

If you are not requesting a certificate of permanent residence at the same time as your family member, you also need to submit documents showing that the family member has had the right of residence in Sweden during the five years you have resided here. See under each category above which documents you need to send in such cases.

7. Other information you would like to submit regarding your application

8. Power of attorney

Appendix – Information on the processing of personal data

Note that this appendix shall not be sent in to the Swedish Migration Agency.

General information

This information is provided to meet the information requirements pursuant to the EU General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679), hereinafter referred to as the “GDPR”.

Processing of personal data

The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data that you provide in the application and during the Swedish Migration Agency’s handling of the application. The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data pursuant to the GDPR and the Swedish Migration Agency’s register statute, i.e., the Act on the Personal Data of Aliens (2016:27). The Act on the Personal Data of Aliens includes regulations that mean that personal data may be processed without you having to provide your consent.

Swedish Migration Agency’s responsibility

Personal data is collected by the Swedish Migration Agency, which is the personal data controller and is responsible for the processing of personal data in the application and in the handling. There may be exceptions in case it is another authority or organisation that processes the personal data that you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency.

Processing of personal data at another authority or organisation

The personal data you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency may also be processed at another authority (e.g., the Swedish Tax Agency or a municipality) or organisation, provided that they have the right to process the personal data. That authority or organisation may in these cases be responsible for the processing of personal data.

Purpose of personal data processing

The Swedish Migration Agency processes your personal data for multiple purposes. The Swedish Migration Agency saves personal data in order for the application process to be carried out, i.e., processing a case concerning, e.g., a residence or work permit. This may also refer to automatic processing, including automatic decisions. The Swedish Migration Agency also processes your personal data to identify you, produce statistics, conduct registration, follow-up, plan, retrace decisions and release information to other authorities. Your personal data is also used in registers of applicants and in archiving at the Swedish Migration Agency.

Checks

The Swedish Migration Agency will use the personal data for checks in registers, which are necessary to make a decision in the matter. This may involve, for example, checking if you are registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS) and if you appear in the Swedish register of suspects and criminal records (MR/BR).

What data

The data the Swedish Migration Agency intends to collect and process include name, personal identity number, address, contact information and other information that is needed to process a case, for example. Depending on what the application concerns, photographs and fingerprints may also be processed.

Transfer of personal data

After a review, your personal data may be released to those who need access to the information as a result of a legal obligation, a task of public interest, such as statistical information, or a task in connection with the exercise of public authority, where a processing of the information is necessary. The Swedish Migration Agency may forward personal information submitted if the Swedish Migration Agency is the wrong body for the information and it should be forwarded to the correct recipient. Transfer of personal data takes place in accordance with personal data or secrecy legislation.

Rights

You have the right to obtain information from the Swedish Migration Agency on what data there is on you and you can request correction, transfer, deletion or restriction of your personal data.

The Agency's address is:
Swedish Migration Agency
601 70 Norrköping

Website address: www.migrationsverket.se

Phone +46-(0)77-123 52 35
