Application for a residence card

Use this form to apply for a residence card if you are not an EU/EEA citizen but you are a family member of an EU/EEA citizen. If the Swedish Migration Agency grants your application, you will be issued a residence card which confirms your right to reside in Sweden. Submit one form per person.

There is no cost to apply for a residence card.

Help us shorten the waiting times by filling in the form on the computer or applying via the e-service. Clear and correct information reduces the risk of us having to ask you for additional information. It makes it easier for both you and the Swedish Migration Agency. You can find more information at www.migrationsverket.se.

5. If the application concerns a child under the age of 18

Complete only if the child applying is under 18.

All children with the ability and desire to do so have the right to speak and be heard regarding their case at the Swedish Migration Agency. Children may express their views themselves, or allow a representative (such as a parent, legal guardian or guardian) to do it for them. The child and the child's parent (guardian) must decide whether the child wants to be heard and if so, in what way. It is important that it is the child's views that come forward and not the adult's. If the child's parents are interviewed verbally, the child will also be interviewed verbally.

Does the child have additional reasons to be granted a residence card? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes, please state the reasons beyond family ties to you as parent.

Does the child want to express their views on their case? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes and the child wants to express their views in writing, please write here or enclose a separate sheet of paper.

If the child wants to express his or her views verbally, please write to the Swedish Migration Agency at migrationsverket@migrationsverket.se. You will find contact information at www.migrationsverket.se.

Does the child need special support? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes, please describe in what way the child needs special support, e.g. for physical or mental reasons.

6. Documents you should submit with your application

Always attach copies of

- the pages in your passport which show personal information, the period of validity, issuing country and signature. The signature must be shown if you are 18 years of age or older
- your family member's passport or national identity card. The nationality must be stated on the identity document.

You will also need to show that you are a family member of an EU/EEA citizen who has the right of residence in Sweden. The documents you need to submit will depend on your relationship.

6.1 If you are married

Submit copies of documents showing your relationship, marriage certificate, marriage record, or similar document.

6.2 If you are cohabitants

Submit copies of documents showing that you have lived together, such as extracts from personal registers, a joint housing contract, or other documents that show that you have been registered at the same address.

6.3 If you apply as a child under the age of 21

Submit

- copies of birth certificate or other document stating the names of your parents
- a separate paper in which you state your views on the matter, if you are under the age of 18.

6.4 If you apply as a child over the age of 21 or a parent

Use the Other information section to describe how you are financially dependent on your family member who resides in Sweden. Attach copies of documents showing

- that you are related to the EU/EEA citizen or their spouse/cohabitant, such as birth certificates
- how you depend on your family member to meet your basic needs.

7. Documents showing that your family member in Sweden meets the requirements for right of residence

You must submit copies of documents showing how your family member in Sweden meets the requirements for right of residence. The documents you must submit depend on your family member's occupation or other means of financial maintenance. If you and your family member are applying at the same time, it is sufficient for one of you to submit the documents with your application.

7.1 If your family member works in Sweden

If your family member works in Sweden, you must attach

- proof of employment from the family member's employer
- payslips for the past three months.

7.2 If your family member is self-employed

Attach copies of

- certificate of registration from the Swedish Companies Registration Office
- F-tax certificate from the Swedish Tax Agency
- the most recent VAT report (if the company is required to report VAT)
- the company's tax account statements for the past three months

- proof that your family member is running a business, such as invoices to customers, receipts for purchased materials, and a rental contract for the business's premises.

If your family member is about to start up a business in Sweden but are not yet operational, you must attach copies of

- documents showing what planning is in place for the company and what preparations have been made
- contract, customer contact details or a rental contract for premises.

If your family member has purchased a business in Sweden, you must send copies of

- transfer agreement
- the most recent annual report.

7.3 If your family member is studying in Sweden

If your family member is studying in Sweden, you must attach

- the family member's certificate of admission to studies at least at upper secondary school level and a certificate of registration or equivalent showing that they have started their studies
- a copy of a European Health Insurance Card (EU Card) or comprehensive private health insurance policy. This requirement applies if you are not listed in the Swedish Population Register
- an assurance that the family member has enough money to support themselves and their family (see section 10. Assurance).

7.4 If your family member is a person with sufficient funds or if they are retired

Your family member's funds must be sufficient to support the entire family. Submit information about your accommodation and what housing costs you have in Sweden, for example

- a rental contract stating the rental cost or
- proof of purchase of a tenant-owner's flat or property. If you own your home, you need to report the monthly costs associated with the property.

If you or your family member are not registered in the Swedish Population Register, you must also submit a certificate showing that you are covered by the social security system in another EU/EEA country. The certificate must be issued by the authorities there. If you cannot obtain such a certificate, you need to take out a comprehensive private health insurance, for each member, that applies during your stay in Sweden, and attach a copy of it. It should be clear what the insurance covers.

7.4.1 If your family member is supporting themselves financially based on salary/wages or other compensation from abroad

Please, submit

- a retirement notice, if your family member is retired
- a copy of their current employment contract and payslips for the past three months from their employer, if they work
- receipts for the costs of commuting abroad. Attach a copy of the monthly/commuting card or similar proof of purchase
- certificates regarding any allowances, grants, or other income from abroad.

7.4.2 If you plan to support yourselves with your family member's assets

Under Other information, indicate how long you plan to live in Sweden. You also need to submit

- a bank statement showing how much money your family member has
- information about any other disposable income.

7.4.3 If someone else is responsible for your financial maintenance in Sweden

You need to submit

- a copy of the ID card of the person who has been supporting you financially
- a letter in which the person who is supporting you certifies that they have been responsible for your financial maintenance, and which also states your relationship
- documents proving that they have supported you financially, such as bank statements.

8. Other information you would like to submit regarding your application

9. Power of attorney

If you would like a third party (a legal representative) to be able to represent you in your case, you must submit the form Power of attorney (107011) to the Swedish Migration Agency.

10. Assurance

If your family member is a student, they need to sign the assurance.

I confirm that the maintenance is secured for myself and my family during my time as a student in Sweden.

Appendix – Information on the processing of personal data

Note that this appendix shall not be sent in to the Swedish Migration Agency.

General information

This information is provided to meet the information requirements pursuant to the EU General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679), hereinafter referred to as the “GDPR”.

Processing of personal data

The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data that you provide in the application and during the Swedish Migration Agency’s handling of the application. The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data pursuant to the GDPR and the Swedish Migration Agency’s register statute, i.e., the Act on the Personal Data of Aliens (2016:27). The Act on the Personal Data of Aliens includes regulations that mean that personal data may be processed without you having to provide your consent.

Swedish Migration Agency’s responsibility

Personal data is collected by the Swedish Migration Agency, which is the personal data controller and is responsible for the processing of personal data in the application and in the handling. There may be exceptions in case it is another authority or organisation that processes the personal data that you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency.

Processing of personal data at another authority or organisation

The personal data you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency may also be processed at another authority (e.g., the Swedish Tax Agency or a municipality) or organisation, provided that they have the right to process the personal data. That authority or organisation may in these cases be responsible for the processing of personal data.

Purpose of personal data processing

The Swedish Migration Agency processes your personal data for multiple purposes. The Swedish Migration Agency saves personal data in order for the application process to be carried out, i.e., processing a case concerning, e.g., a residence or work permit. This may also refer to automatic processing, including automatic decisions. The Swedish Migration Agency also processes your personal data to identify you, produce statistics, conduct registration, follow-up, plan, retrace decisions and release information to other authorities. Your personal data is also used in registers of applicants and in archiving at the Swedish Migration Agency.

Checks

The Swedish Migration Agency will use the personal data for checks in registers, which are necessary to make a decision in the matter. This may involve, for example, checking if you are registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS) and if you appear in the Swedish register of suspects and criminal records (MR/BR).

What data

The data the Swedish Migration Agency intends to collect and process include name, personal identity number, address, contact information and other information that is needed to process a case, for example. Depending on what the application concerns, photographs and fingerprints may also be processed.

Transfer of personal data

After a review, your personal data may be released to those who need access to the information as a result of a legal obligation, a task of public interest, such as statistical information, or a task in connection with the exercise of public authority, where a processing of the information is necessary. The Swedish Migration Agency may forward personal information submitted if the Swedish Migration Agency is the wrong body for the information and it should be forwarded to the correct recipient. Transfer of personal data takes place in accordance with personal data or secrecy legislation.

Rights

You have the right to obtain information from the Swedish Migration Agency on what data there is on you and you can request correction, transfer, deletion or restriction of your personal data.

The Agency's address is:
Swedish Migration Agency
601 70 Norrköping

Website address: www.migrationsverket.se

Phone +46-(0)77-123 52 35
