Application for residence permit to settle in Sweden

NOTE! Read this first!

Use this form if you want to apply for a permit to settle in Sweden. You must also use this form when applying for an extension of your residence permit. If you apply for an extension, you must not fill in boxes 4 and 6.

Children under 18 must apply on a special form called Application for residence permit for a child under the age of 18 years to settle in Sweden 163011.

In order to be granted a temporary residence permit, you must have a passport that is valid for the entire permit period. If you do not have a passport or if your passport will expire soon, you should apply for a new passport.

If you are an EU/EEA citizen and wish to apply for a residence permit to move to a Swedish citizen or other person resident in Sweden, you must also use this form. There are special forms for other EU/EEA citizens, Swiss dependants and those current residents and their close relatives.

On the last page you will see which attachments you need to send. You will also find this form and more information on our website www.migrationsverket.se. Please complete the form on a computer if possible, as it makes it easier for us to process your application.

NOTE! This form is not valid without a signature.

Place and date Signature

A person who provides incorrect information in the application, or knowingly omits information that is of importance, can be fined or sentenced to imprisonment. See Chapter 20, section 6, paragraph 2 of the Aliens Act (2005:716).

Documents to enclose with the application

If you are applying for a residence permit for the first time:

- The form: Family details, 239011
- Copy of passport pages that show your identity and your passport's expiry date

State which other documents you will include with your application

If you are applying for an extension of your current permit:

- Form - Assurance of cohabitation when applying for extension of a residence permit, 243011B
Completed and signed by yourself and your partner.
- Copy of passport pages that show your identity and your passport's expiry date.
- Copy of your referee's passport or ID, showing his or her personal data.

State which other documents you will include with your application

If you are applying for a permanent residence permit:

If you are applying for a permanent residence permit, you must include appendices showing that you meet the subsistence requirement or that you are exempt from the subsistence requirement. This applies only to those aged 18 and over.

- If you are employed, you must include an employment contract, your one to three most recent pay slips, and a document with the name, phone number and e-mail address of a contact person at the company where you are employed.
- If you are a business owner, you must include documents showing that you are a business owner and what income you have from your company. For example, such documentation could be your F-tax certificate, the registration certificate for your company, your final assessment notice for the previous income year, and a copy of your income tax return (together with a copy of the NE or N3A attachment) for the previous income year.
- If you are entitled to a pension, you must submit a decision from the Swedish Pensions Agency that shows that you are entitled to an income-based retirement pension, a guarantee pension or financial support for the elderly.
- If you are exempt from the maintenance requirement for other special reasons, you must include documents showing that you have a permanently reduced ability to work, e.g., a decision on entitlement to sickness benefits or activity compensation from the Swedish Social Insurance Agency, an investigation from the Swedish Public Employment Service or a medical certificate.

Your housing cost when you are applying for a permanent residence permit

You must provide the total housing cost for the home you live in when you are applying for a permanent residence permit. This also applies even if it is not you who pays for the home. If the home is a rental flat, the housing cost is the rent and the cost for heating if it is not included in the rent. If the home is a tenant-owner flat or a villa, the housing cost is the interest on the home loan, the monthly fee and operating costs. If you live together with other adults, the actual housing cost will be divided evenly by the number of adults in the household.

Total monthly housing cost for the household

Number of adults who live in the household

- If you live in a rental flat, you must enclose a lease that shows the rent.
- If you live in a villa, you must enclose a purchase contract.
- If you live in a tenant-owner flat, you must enclose a purchase contract and a document that shows the monthly fee.

Appendix – Information on the processing of personal data

Note that this appendix shall not be sent in to the Swedish Migration Agency.

General information

This information is provided to meet the information requirements pursuant to the EU General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679), hereinafter referred to as the “GDPR”.

Processing of personal data

The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data that you provide in the application and during the Swedish Migration Agency’s handling of the application. The Swedish Migration Agency processes personal data pursuant to the GDPR and the Swedish Migration Agency’s register statute, i.e., the Act on the Personal Data of Aliens (2016:27). The Act on the Personal Data of Aliens includes regulations that mean that personal data may be processed without you having to provide your consent.

Swedish Migration Agency’s responsibility

Personal data is collected by the Swedish Migration Agency, which is the personal data controller and is responsible for the processing of personal data in the application and in the handling. There may be exceptions in case it is another authority or organisation that processes the personal data that you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency.

Processing of personal data at another authority or organisation

The personal data you submitted to the Swedish Migration Agency may also be processed at another authority (e.g., the Swedish Tax Agency or a municipality) or organisation, provided that they have the right to process the personal data. That authority or organisation may in these cases be responsible for the processing of personal data.

Purpose of personal data processing

The Swedish Migration Agency processes your personal data for multiple purposes. The Swedish Migration Agency saves personal data in order for the application process to be carried out, i.e., processing a case concerning, e.g., a residence or work permit. This may also refer to automatic processing, including automatic decisions. The Swedish Migration Agency also processes your personal data to identify you, produce statistics, conduct registration, follow-up, plan, retrace decisions and release information to other authorities. Your personal data is also used in registers of applicants and in archiving at the Swedish Migration Agency.

Checks

The Swedish Migration Agency will use the personal data for checks in registers, which are necessary to make a decision in the matter. This may involve, for example, checking if you are registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS) and if you appear in the Swedish register of suspects and criminal records (MR/BR).

What data

The data the Swedish Migration Agency intends to collect and process include name, personal identity number, address, contact information and other information that is needed to process a case, for example. Depending on what the application concerns, photographs and fingerprints may also be processed.

Transfer of personal data

After a review, your personal data may be released to those who need access to the information as a result of a legal obligation, a task of public interest, such as statistical information, or a task in connection with the exercise of public authority, where a processing of the information is necessary. The Swedish Migration Agency may forward personal information submitted if the Swedish Migration Agency is the wrong body for the information and it should be forwarded to the correct recipient. Transfer of personal data takes place in accordance with personal data or secrecy legislation.

Rights

You have the right to obtain information from the Swedish Migration Agency on what data there is on you and you can request correction, transfer, deletion or restriction of your personal data.

The Agency's address is:
Swedish Migration Agency
601 70 Norrköping

Website address: www.migrationsverket.se

Phone +46-(0)77-123 52 35

Registration number 202100-2163

If you request that your personal data be deleted, it is important to know that there are requirements that personal data shall be preserved according to national archive rules.

You can contact the Swedish Migration Agency's data protection officer at the address dataskyddsombud@migrationsverket.se if you have questions about the personal data processing. You also have the right to file a complaint with the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (www.imy.se) if you believe that the Swedish Migration Agency is processing your personal data in an incorrect manner.
