---------------	----------

Use this form to apply for a travel document.

If you have been granted a declaration of refugee status or a refugee status declaration, you can get a travel document in accordance with the 1951 Geneva Convention. If you are stateless, you can get a travel document in accordance with the 1954 New York Convention.

You must submit the application for a travel document in person at one of the Swedish Migration Agency's Permit Units or Service Centres. There is no fee for this application but an administrative surcharge of SEK 350 applies when you collect the travel document. If the application is for a child under the age of 18, the information on the reverse side of this form should also be filled out. You can obtain further information at www.migrationsverket.se.
