8. If the application concerns a child under the age of 18 (To be completed only if the child applying is under 18)

All children with the ability and desire to do so have the right to speak and be heard regarding their case at the Swedish Migration Agency. Children may express their views themselves, or allow a representative (such as a parent, custodian or guardian) to do it for them. It is important that it is the child's views that come forward and not the adult's. If the child's parents are interviewed verbally, the child will also be interviewed verbally.

Does the child have additional reasons to be granted a residence permit beyond family ties to you as parent?

No Yes If yes, please state the reasons.

Does the child want to express his/her views on his/her case?

No

Yes

If yes and the child wants to express his/her views in writing, please write here or attach a separate sheet of paper.

If the child wants to express his/her views verbally, please write to the Swedish Migration Agency at migrationsverket@migrationsverket.se. You will find contact information at www.migrationsverket.se/English/

Does the child need special support? (for example for physical or mental reasons)

No

Yes

If yes, please describe in what way the child needs special support.

(Contact the embassy or consulate general before your visit to find out if they deal with immigration matters or to receive information about which embassy or consulate general does)

If you live in Sweden

Address in Sweden

Questionnaire

Support

How will you support yourself financially when you are in Sweden?

Future plans

What future plans do you and your family have?

Contact with home country

How will you and your family maintain contact with your home country during your stay in Sweden?

If you are applying for an extension of your permit, you are to state the contact you and your family have had with your home country during your stay in Sweden. Also state whether you have made any visits to your home country and, if so, when.

Appendices to include with the application

If the application is for a family member 18 years of age or older, please include

- copies of the pages in your passport that show your personal information, photograph, signature, passport number, passport-issuing country, the passport's period of validity and whether you have permission to live in countries other than your country of origin. If your passport is about to expire, we recommend that you renew it, as you cannot obtain a permit for longer than the validity of your passport
- documents, such as bank statements, that prove that you will be able to support yourself
- copy of marriage certificate or equivalent (applies to married couples or registered partners)
- population registration certificate, accommodation contract, proof of purchase for accommodation or other documents that show you have lived together in your home country (applies to cohabiting partners)
- if you are not applying for the permit at the same time, a short letter from the person in Sweden in which he or she confirms that you will be living together in Sweden.

If the application is for a child under the age of 18, please include

- copies of the pages in the child's passport that show his/her personal information, photograph, signature (if applicable), passport number, passport-issuing country, the passport's period of validity and whether the child has permission to live in countries other than his/her country of origin. If the child's passport is about to expire, we recommend that you renew it, as the child cannot obtain a permit for longer than the validity of his/her passport
- documents, such as bank statements, that prove that there are arrangements to support the child
- a birth certificate or other proof of birth for the child showing the names of the parents
- consent from the other guardian (if the other guardian is not also coming to Sweden) or proof that a family member is the sole guardian. This could be a court order, or a death certificate if the other parent has died. If there is joint guardianship, a copy of the other guardian's passport or another form of identification must also be provided
- adoption papers if the child is adopted.
- optionally a separate sheet of paper with the child's views.
