

Application for an extension of a residence permit

Use this form if you have previously applied for asylum or are a family member of someone who has previously applied for asylum

For official use
Case number	Signature

Note! Please read the yellow box before you fill out the form.

Fill out this form if you wish to apply for an extension of your residence permit according to the temporary law. This applies if you have previously applied for asylum or are a family member of a person who has previously applied for asylum and has been granted a time limited residence permit. Write in Roman letters so that it is easy for the Swedish Migration Agency to read what you have written. Fill out one form for each person, including children. If you are applying for your minor child, both custodians of the child who are residing in Sweden must sign the application. Submit the form together with all required appendices to the Swedish Migration Agency. For information on what address you need to send your forms to, please visit <https://www.migrationsverket.se/extend-asylum>.

I wish to apply for an extension of my residence permit for the following reasons:
(You may select several reasons)

- I need protection (asylum) in Sweden
- I am able to support myself as an employee in Sweden
- I am able to support myself as a business owner in Sweden
- I am a family member of a person who is living in Sweden
- I am studying on an upper secondary level in Sweden
- I wish to seek employment after completing my upper secondary level studies in Sweden
- I need to stay in Sweden due to my health

If you are applying for an extension because you need protection in Sweden you must select one of the following alternatives:

- I have the same reasons for protection as in my previous application
- I have new reasons for protection that I have not told the Swedish Migration Agency about

Appendices to include with the application

Financial support as an employee or business owner

If you are applying for a residence permit because you are able to support yourself as an employee or business owner, you must include the following with the application

- Uppgifter om försörjning, form number 202011 (only in Swedish)

Family member

If you arrived in Sweden as a family member of a husband, wife, registered partner or common-law partner who applied for asylum and was granted a time limited residence permit, if you are still living with the same person, you must include

- Assurance of cohabitation, form number 223011

If you arrived in Sweden as a family member of a child or a parent and you wish to apply for an extended residence permit on the basis of family ties to that same person, you do not need to submit any appendices.

If you wish to stay in Sweden because you have a new family relation (husband, wife, registered partner, common-law partner or a newborn child), you must include

- Frågeformulär om nyetablerade förhållanden \(förlängning\) T78 (only in Swedish)

Studies on an upper secondary level

If you are applying for a residence permit because you are studying on an upper secondary level you must include

- an individual study plan or
- equivalent planning documents from a folk high school

The documents that you submit must specify the following

- that you have begun your studies
- what type of studies you are enrolled in
- that you are studying full time, or the reason for why you are studying part time
- what date your studies will be completed

If you are enrolled in vocational training, so-called vocational package, the study plan needs to specify what vocational orientation the training has and that the purpose of the training is that you will be able to work after you have completed your studies.

Seeking employment after you have completed your studies on an upper secondary level

If you are applying for a residence permit because you have completed, or will soon complete, your studies on an upper secondary level and wish to seek employment, you must include

- your diploma or a certificate that shows what date you completed, or will complete, your studies.

Health

If you are applying for a residence permit because of your health you do not need to submit a medical certificate now. We will contact you if we need any additional information.
