

Application for an emergency alien's passport

To be filled out by the Swedish Migration Agency or the Swedish mission abroad
Case number	Signature

If you do not have any documents that will serve as a passport and do not have possibility of obtaining one, the Swedish Migration Agency can issue an emergency alien's passport in certain cases. The Migration Agency can issue an emergency alien's passport for a single journey to or from Sweden. An emergency alien's passport is normally valid for a maximum of seven months. If you want to apply for a normal alien's passport, you should fill in form 191011.

Guardians can also use this form to apply for an emergency alien's passport on behalf of a child that is under 18. Normally, one or both of the child's parents are the guardians but a trustee or specially appointed custodian can also be a guardian. As the guardian, you fill in and sign the application. If there are two guardians, you must both consent to the Migration Agency issuing an emergency alien's passport for the child. You must also submit the form "Consent for the Swedish Migration Agency to issue a passport (alien's passport or travel document) for a child under the age of 18" (form number 247011).

Please note that you must submit your application in person, filled in, at one of the Migration Agency's Service Centres or at a Swedish mission abroad. Remember that everybody applying for an emergency alien's passport must come in person, including children. There is normally an application fee for an emergency alien's passport. You can pay the fee with a credit/debit card when you hand in your application, or ask for a payment slip and pay later.
